The screenshot shows a window titled "Aplikasi Penghitung Umur" with a light blue header. Below the header, there are three input fields and three buttons. The first input field is labeled "Pilih Tanggal Lahir" and contains the date "Apr 4, 2004". The second input field is labeled "Umur Anda" and contains the text "20 tahun, 6 bulan, 26 hari". The third input field is labeled "Hari Ulang Tahun Berikutnya" and contains the text "5 bulan, 5 hari lagi". To the right of these fields are three buttons: "Hitung", "Clear", and "Tutup". Below the input fields, there is a large text area displaying a list of historical events, starting with "Tunggu, sedang mengambil data..." and followed by a scrollable list of events from 503 BC to 1925 AD. The events are listed in chronological order, with some entries in Indonesian and others in English. The text area has a vertical scrollbar on the right side.
